

CELEBRATE CANADA'S SESQUICENTENNIAL WITH MUSIC SPECIAL AWARDS FOR 2017 FESTIVAL

To celebrate Canada's Sesquicentennial, the Brantford Kiwanis Music Festival is featuring special competitions and awards in each of the Piano, Classical Voice, Music Theatre, Strings and Guitar disciplines.

Participants in the Canadian Composer classes in each of these disciplines will be eligible for a special Sesquicentennial Award of $150 per discipline as determined by the discipline adjudicator.

The classes eligible for these special sesquicentennial awards in each discipline are:

PIANO - Section 6 – Classes 160 to 171

STRINGS – Section 99 – Classes 1320 to 1326

GUITAR – Section 142 – Classes 1710 to 1719

Participants registered in these classes are eligible. You do not need to do anything extra to register or qualify.

Celebrate Canada's 150 years by exploring the work of Canadian composers.
